

Earth Explorers

This is the Wenatchee River valley where your Field Day will take place. Like many locations on Earth this valley is affected by mountains, plants, fire and water. Think of these four components and discuss how each one affects the others. For example, how might mountains, plants and water affect the size and spread of wildfire? How might water, mountains and fire affect the plants that grow here? Etc...

